81. The Passing of the Unknown Warrior:—His Majesty the King as Chief Mourner 4,200.00
On November 11th, 1920—Armistice Day—after the unveiling of the Cenotaph, the solemn procession passed on to Westminster Abbey, where the Unknown Warrior was buried: chosen by chance from the countless unnamed dead in France and Flanders, that the Nation might honour in him, without distinction of rank, birth, or service, all who fell in the Great War. His body was brought with full military honours to London, the highest officers of the Forces were the pall-bearers, the King walked behind as Chief Mourner, followed by Princes, Peers, and Statesmen.
"And they buried him among the Kings." This picture was painted by official request, and a picture of the Abbey Ceremony is now placed in the Houses of Parliament.
